Equipment in the yard. Paperwork we actually understand.

Buying equipment for a public agency shouldn't mean chasing dealers who've never seen a purchase order requisition, or waiting months for units that were "on order" when you signed.

Nationwide Haul keeps real inventory on the ground at our Florida and Georgia locations. When your department needs a dump trailer or a lowboy, it's sitting in our yard — not on a production schedule.

And because we're an approved cooperative contract vendor, your purchase runs through contracts that have already been competitively bid. That means compliant procurement without the RFP timeline.

Skip the bid process. Stay compliant.

Cooperative purchasing contracts let public agencies buy equipment through contracts that have already gone through a competitive solicitation. The bidding is done. The pricing is set. Your purchase is audit-ready from day one.

Nationwide Haul is an approved vendor under:

HOW IT SAVES YOUR DEPARTMENT TIME

TYPICAL BID PROCESS

3–6 months from spec writing to award.

COOPERATIVE CONTRACT PURCHASE

Request a quote, issue a PO against the contract, take delivery.

Not sure if your agency can purchase through these contracts? Most Florida and Georgia municipalities, counties, school districts, and special districts are eligible. Call us — we'll check with you.

Built for public works.

Financing that fits a government budget cycle.

Through NEF, our in-house equipment finance division, we offer municipal leasing and financing structured around fiscal-year budgets — not standard commercial terms forced onto a government timeline.

[ADRIANA: confirm with Derek/NEF what municipal products actually exist — tax-exempt lease-purchase? Straight municipal lease? Don't publish until confirmed.]

Support after the sale.

Public works equipment can't sit in a repair queue. Our NHTTR service centers in [ADRIANA: locations] handle trailer repair, DOT inspections, and parts — so your units stay on the road and your maintenance records stay clean.
